

Drew Hallberg

Managing Director

Prior to partnering in FinSec Life, Drew Hallberg had a successful 16-year career in sales and senior management. His background in acquiring, operating, and selling an office products dealership has given him a unique window into how to serve corporate clients in the areas of business succession and executive compensation. He is passionate about people and using creativity to offer personalized solutions to both corporate and individual clients.

As the former Vice President of America's Office Source (AOS), Drew led the sales team and helped drive the strategic initiatives of the company. During his tenure, the company grew each year to position AOS for acquisition by Office Depot in 2019. Before serving as the company's Vice President, Drew was a direct sales consultant, where he became AOS' second-highest producer, working his way up in the company.

After completing his business degree at The University of Central Florida, Drew started his career in the mortgage business. He enjoyed working with his father, where he learned finance, hard work, and customer service.

Drew lives in Maitland with his wife Carey and three children, Andi, Caroline, and Wesley. He served as a Deacon at Lake Baldwin Church for many years and continues to serve there. Drew is passionate about the outdoors and is an avid hunter and shooter. In his youth, he enjoyed competitive wakeboarding, snowboarding, and dirt biking. Drew has passed along his love of wakeboarding to his children and now finds himself left to drive the boat.
